Customers can now book travel through September 2, 2025

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 29, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Sun Country Airlines announces the extension of its selling schedule through September 2, 2025. With this extension, customers can book non-stop, affordable travel to more than 100 destinations through 2025.

"Sun Country has more than doubled its nonstop destinations from Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport in the past five years, making us the leisure airline of choice at MSP," said Grant Whitney, Senior Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer. "Our summer 2025 schedule will offer even more flight options to our most popular leisure markets."

Customers can look forward to increased flight frequencies to a diverse array of cities, with flight schedules that provide vacation options to both smaller towns and large cities. This includes historic cities like Atlanta and Boston, as well as Midwestern and Northeast vacation spots such as Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Syracuse, New York. Travelers will also enjoy more flight options to scenic spots like Salt Lake City and the sunny coast of San Diego. In addition, Sun Country will extend its seasonal service into the summer for two popular Florida destinations with Saturday-only flights from MSP to Miami and Sarasota.

"Sun Country remains committed to providing low fares that enable travelers to reconnect with friends and family and explore exciting new destinations, all while enjoying our quality onboard experience," said Whitney.

Additional scheduled service flights will be added in early 2025 as Sun Country continues to enhance integration between multiple lines of business, including converting Major League Soccer charter flights into scheduled passenger service in select destinations.
