Sun Country Airlines and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters reach Agreement in Principle on CBA covering Sun Country Flight Attendants

Jan 30, 2025

MINNEAPOLIS, January 30, 2025 -- Sun Country Airlines (NASDAQ: SNCY) and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT) recently announced that they have reached an Agreement in Principle on a new collective bargaining agreement (CBA) covering Sun Country's nearly 800 flight attendants.

Sun Country and IBT will work together to finalize the language in the CBA. Once complete, the resulting Tentative Agreement will be put out for a ratification vote by flight attendants next month.

"We have tremendous respect and appreciation for Sun Country flight attendants. This Agreement in Principle reflects the important role they play in keeping our passengers safe and delivering on Sun Country's promise of a friendly, hassle-free travel experience. I also want to thank the IBT Negotiating Committee for their hard work and collaboration in reaching this agreement," said Greg Mays, Sun Country Airlines Chief Operating Officer.
